

COMMISSIONE PER GLI SCAMBI CULTURALI FRA L'ITALIA E GLI STATI UNITI

The U.S. - Italy Fulbright Commission

Fulbright Program in Italy: signed three new academic partnerships for the academic years 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19.

The Commission for Cultural Exchanges between Italy and the United States – the bi-national agency that on the behalf of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the U.S. Department of State has been managing since 1948 the Fulbright Program in Italy promoting study, research and teaching opportunities in Italy and the U.S. through a program of scholarships for Italian and U.S. citizens – announces three new academic partnerships for the academic years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19.

In the next three years the Fulbright Program in Italy will offer 14 new scholarships for Italian and U.S. citizens interested in study and research opportunities in both countries.

During the academic years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19 the Program will offer the following opportunities:

- Fulbright – SDA Bocconi School of Management: 3 scholarships (Euro 40,700 each) for U.S. citizens to attend the Master of Public Administration at the SDA Bocconi School of Management during the a.y. 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-2019.
- Fulbright – ETHENEA: 5 scholarships for Italian citizens to attend Master of Business Administration programs at U.S. campuses during the a.y. 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-2019.
- Fulbright – Fondazione Falcone - NIAF: 3 scholarships for U.S. citizens (up to $ 12,700 each) to carry out research and study activities in criminology at the Fondazione Falcone (Palermo); 3 scholarships (up to $ 12,000 each) for Italian students enrolled at Sicilian universities to carry out research and study activities in criminology at U.S. campuses during the academic years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-2019.

For more information on the Fulbright Program in Italy:

www.fulbright.it

www.facebook.com/FulbrightCommissionItaly

Rome,
May 2015

ETHENEA
managing the Ethna Funds

Fulbright Program in Italy: signed academic partnership with ETHENEA Independent Investors S.A.

The Commission for Cultural Exchanges between Italy and the United States – the bi-national agency that on the behalf of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the U.S. Department of State has been managing since 1948 the Fulbright Program in Italy promoting study, research and teaching opportunities in Italy and the U.S. through a program of scholarships for Italian and U.S. citizens - has signed an academic partnership with the independent investment company ETHENEA Independent Investors S.A. for the academic years 2016 - 17, 2017-18 and 2018-19.

ETHENEA Independent Investors S.A. is an independent investment company based in Luxembourg managing the Ethna Funds. The actively managed assets of the Ethna Funds currently amount to more than 13.2 billion EUR (as of 30/04/2015).

According to the Fulbright – ETHENEA agreement during the academic years 2016-17, 2017-18 e 2019-19 5 scholarships will be offered to Italian citizens to attend Master of Business Administration programs at U.S. campuses.

For more info on the Fulbright Program in Italy:

www.fulbright.it

www.facebook.com/FulbrightCommissionItaly

For more info on ETHENEA:
<http://www.ethenea.com/>

Rome,
May 2015